MISCEGENATION!

Negro Suffrage and Negro Equality Fairly and Flatly Endorsed.

SPEECH OF JOHN HICKMAN AT WEST CHESTER.

WEST CHESTER, Sept. 24, 1866.

During the last week the people of West Chester were treated to two Geary meetings, one upon Wednesday by the quasi-white wing of the Republican party, and the other upon Saturday by the ultra-black wing. The former was the regular County Mass Meeting. It was addressed by Curtin and Geary; was smaller than usual, and devoid of enthusiasm. The latter was ostensibly called for the purpose of celebrating the anniversary of the emancipation proclamation, but really to impress upon the negroes that they are entitled to political and social equality, and that they must obtain it, even at the point of the bayonet.

It is this latter meeting, addressed by the Rev. Highland Garnett (colored), of Washington, D. C., and the Hon. John Hickman (white), of this place, of which I desire to give you an account.

Early on Saturday morning, "the free Americans of African descent" began to flock into town, and by noon there were several thousand present. The parade was then formed and, headed by a colored brass band from Philadelphia, marched through the principal streets of the borough, and out to the Agricultural Fair Grounds. Along the march handkerchiefs were waved and cheers given by many of our white citizens, persons who make great pretensions to respectability and good standing in this community. After reaching the fair grounds the meeting was organized by calling one of our negro barbers to the chair. The Emancipation Proclamation was then read, and after the singing of "John Brown's Soul is Marching On," by the colored population, the Rev. Highland Garnett was introduced as orator for the occasion. He denounced President Johnson in unmeasured terms, intimating in his address that he should like to see him assassinated. He told the negroes that they deserved and were entitled to the right of suffrage, and warned the whites to beware, should they stand in their way of obtaining it. After abusing the copperheads and rebels, he wound up with a glowing description of how the negroes, provided the right of suffrage should be given them, would rush to the field of battle, should there be another war, and ask that the "Stars and Stripes should be their winding sheets.

The applause having subsided and the band having played "Rally Round the Flag," the Hon. John Hickman appeared upon the platform, surrounded by negroes, and was introduced as the next speaker. The following is the substance of his speech:

MR. CHIRMAN: I have been asked why I am here to-day, and I propose to answer that question by saying that I am here because I want to be. I am here to lend you my countenance on this occasion, and to say a word in behalf of your right to suffrage. I would like to call you "fellow-citizens," but the Supreme Court has said that you are not citizens. I should like to call you fellow-voters, but, as yet, the law will not permit me to. If, however, I were a young man of twenty, I believe I should live to see you enjoy the right of suffrage. In times gone by it was customary to question your humanity, but that, I believe, is no longer questioned; it is now conceded by every one that you belong to the human family. And, had it not been that Andrew Johnson is controlled by bad and wicked counsellors, you would to-day enjoy the right of suffrage to which you are entitled. I am in favor of giving equal and impartial suffrage to the negro, because he is entitled to it, and because I believe that God Almighty has decreed that justice must be done to all men. Many of the colored people here before me have a better right to vote than I have; for I have but given of my money to sustain the government, whilst they periled their lives to protect it.

If the Irishman is entitled to vote after a five years' residence in the country, why should not the negro, who has lived here all his life? It is said he is not intelligent enough. I say that if the Irishman is intelligent enough, so is my friend Mr. Garnett. If I am intelligent enough to vote, then so is Mr. Garnett, for he is my equal. It has been customary to say that the negro who has intelligence derives it from the white blood in his veins. I deny it. Stand up brother Garnett. [Brother G. stood up amid great applause.] Show me where there is any trace of white blood in him, (patting brother G. on the shoulder.) There is none; he is a genuine negro. It has taken four years of bloody war to destroy the body of slavery, and it will take four years more of war to destroy the spirit of slavery. When that war comes, you will be called upon to fight, and mark me! if then you do not obtain your right to vote, I will never again exercise mine.

But I did not come here to make a speech; I came here to show you that I am in favor of equality before the law, and I now boldly declare that I am in favor of political and social equality with the negro.

The speaker here retired amidst great applause and three cheers for the Hon. John Hickman. In the morning, the name of Wayne McVeigh was mentioned in connection with Hickman's as one of the speakers of the day, but for some reason he failed to make his appearance. There can no longer be any doubt but that the Republican party is committed to negro suffrage and equality, at least in this country; for you will recollect that in the Press of Friday, Sept. 14, 1866, Mr. Hickman, in a letter in answer to one from many of the leading Republicans of West Chester, "announces himself a Radical," and gives his "views upon the great questions of the times." The letter to Mr. Hickman concludes in these words: "We have heard them expressed (i. e. your views) too frequently and strongly to leave us in any doubt as to their character, but we wish to give them publicity, as your many friends value them highly."—This letter is signed by Dr. Wilmer Worthington, Republican candidate for the State Senate in this district; J. Smith Futhey, Chairman of the Republican County Committee; Addison May, Wm Darlington, a prominent lawyer and great Anti-Mason; Washington Townsend, a member of the Bar; E. B. Moore, editor of the American Republican, and David Meconkey, a wealthy banker. They all fully and unreservedly endorse Mr. Hickman's views, according to their own statement, so that further comment by me is rendered unnecessary. Our readers may see to what a depth of degradation and shame persons of supposed respectability and character will descend to further ambitious projects and low party ends.

From the Lancaster Intelligencer.

LET EVERY CATHOLIC IN PENNSYLVANIA READ.

Brutal Treatment of Sisters of Charity by John W. Geary.

John W. Geary, with his narrow intellect and bigoted nature, we have no doubt, made a most acceptable member of that infamous political organization which proscribed men on account of their birth or religious belief. His hatred of Catholics did not end with the short-lived triumph of the Know-Nothing party. It adhered to him, and was afterwards displayed in the most offensive manner possible.

One of the most intelligent, wealthy and respectable citizens of Frederick, Maryland, sends us the following statement of an occurrence, which shows in its true light the bigoted and tyrannical character of the vain upstart who is the Radical candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania. We give the facts in his own language:

To the Editors of the Intelligencer:

DEAR SIRS:—It occurs to me that justice demands that the rude and brutal manner in which some Sisters of Charity were treated by John W. Geary, should be known, in order that the Catholic citizens of Pennsylvania may understand the character and the spirit of the man who appeals to them for support at the coming gubernatorial election. The facts will be sufficient without any comment, though you are of course at liberty to use them as you see fit.

In the fall of 1861, under protection of a pass from General Scott, some four or five Sisters of Charity left the St. Joseph's House at Emmitsburg on their mission to nurse the sick and wounded soldiers of both armies. They had permission to visit any point along the line of contest from Winchester to Richmond, as their services might be needed. While traveling on the cars of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, under permission from the commander in chief at Washington to go where they pleased in discharge of the duties of their sacred mission, they were arrested at Point of Rocks by Col. John W Geary. In a rude manner they with their baggage were removed from the cars and left among crowds of soldiers and rough camp followers, sitting without shelter on their trunks by the roadside. It was not until after repeated solicitations that Col. Geary consented to grant an interview to the principal sister, a lady of education and refinement, as were her associates. Finally this military dignitary gave orders to have her led into his august presence by a guard.

In vain did she explain fully the charitable character of her holy mission; in vain did she exhibit the general and unrestricted pass given her by the Commander-in-Chief at Washington, authorizing her to go, with her associates, wherever their holy mission might call them, or wherever they might be needed to nurse the wounded and console the dying; in vain did she beg to be allowed to proceed as several parties of Sisters had been allowed to do unmolested before, over the same route; in vain did she speak of the crying wants of the wounded, the sick, the dying soldiers of the Union army, to relieve and succor whom was a great part of her mission; in vain did she assure this petty tyrant (Geary) that she had nursed the sick and wounded soldiers of all parties in the Crimean war, without molestation or hindrance, receiving from Turk and Russian no less courtesy and kindness than she did from Frenchman or Englishman; in vain did she protest with tearful entreaties against such usage in her native land, after having traveled on a similar mission all over Europe unmolested. John W. Geary, a bigot by nature and a petty tyrant in his position, thrust her and her companions into the cars and sent them back to Frederick City, on their way to the House of St. Joseph, from which they came.

The Surgeon General at Frederick, a high-toned gentleman, and a native of Philadelphia, hearing of the manner in which the Sisters of Charity had been treated by Geary, and fearing the damaging effect which such brutal conduct would have upon the many thousands of Catholic soldiers who were fighting in the front ranks of the army, at once despatched an orderly to Gen. Banks, at headquarters near Poolsville, with a letter containing a statement of the conduct of General Geary, which letter will be found officially recorded on the books of the Medical Director. The Adjutant after riding all night, returned to Frederick with an imperative order, commanding General Geary to escort in person and place safely on the Southern side of the Potomac the said Sisters of Charity, and to give to them every assistance to aid them in the discharge of their sacred mission of mercy. With what grace he could after his brutal conduct, Geary did escort them beyond the Potomac after having endeavored to set himself up as superior to the Commander in-Chief.

Any soldier who was under Geary at Point of Rocks at the time alluded to will remember his treatment of these Sisters of Charity. He will not dare to deny one word of the above statement. If he should the Medical Director and the Sisters will testify to the entire truthfulness of what is here written.

The above facts have been furnished in the shape in which they appear, as we have stated, by one of the wealthiest, most intelligent and honorable men in the City of Frederick. They show what a mean and miserable bigot John W. Geary is. We hope our cotemporaries will give the statement a wide circulation.

Blurting the Truth.

The editor of the Independent, who has been in full consultation with his party, says:

"No leading Republican in Congress means to admit the ten wailing States simply on the adoption of the constitutional amendment. These States are to be admitted on no conditions short of the equal political rights of their loyal citizens, without distinction of race. A reconstruction of the Union on any other basis would be a national dishonor. Until the rebel States can come back on this basis, they shall not come back at all."

This is a frank and free admission.—The South may adopt forty constitutional amendments—but can never be readmitted into the Union until negroes vote there.—N. Y. Express.

GEN. GRANT ON THE WITNESS STAND.

A Roorback Squelched.

The Philadelphia Sunday Mercury has the following among its special telegrams from Washington:

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Gen. Grant denies the reports put in circulation concerning his preferences as regards a vote in your State. The General says "his record is that of a soldier, and he has condemned the practice of officers making political capital off of the records of the army." It is not in accordance with his way of doing things.

The General regrets exceedingly that his name has been mixed up with local politics. The report, as published, is a tissue of falsehoods. Gen. Grant never made use of the language attributed to him. He is a warm supporter of the President's policy, and is doing all in his power to influence every one to the same way of thinking.

The Disunionists.

Henry Wilson, United States Senator, addressed a Radical meeting in Indianapolis on Saturday night, and said that the promotions of such men as Granger, Custer and other soldiers who attended the Cleveland Convention would not be confirmed by the Senate. A preacher named McMullen followed in a speech in which he said, that the assassination of President Johnson would not be a very serious calamity.

This is the precise style of the Rev. Mr. Hunnicutt, one of the Southern loyalists, traveling with Hamilton and Brownlow. Mr. Brownlow, by the way, in his Cleveland speech, last week discoursed of his future state as follows:

If God, in His providence, should call me off, I have no fears of the consequences beyond the grave. If the books have been correctly kept in the upper world, as I have no doubt they have been, there will be a small balance in my favor.

And such is the blasphemy which finds applause among the Radicals.—N. Y. Express.

Real Spirit of the Radicals towards "Foreigners."

The real spirit of the Radicals towards the adopted citizens, though of late hidden for a few weeks under their attempt to curry favor with what they call "the Irish vote," is developed in all its natural beauty by a recent visit of an Irish delegation to the President. Says the N. Haven Journal (Radical):

"This is the first attempt in our history of a foreign organization to rule America, and the meekness of the President, under the insult offered him, will only hasten his ruin."

They Must be Educated to it.

The working men who vote the Republican ticket—at least many of them, cannot be made to believe that their leaders really intend to place them on an equality with the Negro. They will come to it by degrees. Their leaders are good "levellers," as witness this speech of Horace Maynard, at Athens, Tenn., on the 21st of August:

And I tell you, gentlemen, that in a short time all this complaint about negro equality will be done away with. Some months since it was said that the negro would not be suffered to testify in your courts—that his oath would not be granted him. But how stands the matter already? He is not only permitted to testify in your courts with impunity, but there is every evidence that he will soon be on a social equality with the white man in your State. Yes, gentlemen, in a short time he will marry and intermarry in your families. It is a little objectionable to-day, but you will soon get over this, and the persecuted negro will be welcome in your parlors. This will be the result of the political and social changes of the next few months.

ADDRESS OF THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE ROOMS, 828 WALNUT ST., PHILADELPHIA.

To the People of Pennsylvania:

The Democratic party in its platform of principles, adopted at Harrisburg, on the 5th day of March, 1866, resolved

1. That the States whereof the people were lately in rebellion are integral parts of the Union, and are entitled to representation in Congress, by men duly elected, who bear true faith to the Constitution and laws, and in order to vindicate the maxim that taxation without representation is tyranny, such representatives should be forthwith admitted.

2. That the faith of the republic is pledged to the payment of the national debt, and Congress should pass all laws necessary for that purpose.

3. That the white race alone is entitled to the control of the government of the republic, and we are unwilling to grant to negroes the right to vote.

Upon this platform we placed our candidate for Governor, and with these principles we confidently look for success in this contest.

Our opponents in their Convention, held at Harrisburg, on the 7th day of March, 1866, also, adopted a platform, and nominated a candidate. The principles they enunciated appear to be lost sight of, and the proposed constitutional amendment takes their place as the rule of Radical orthodoxy, and to it their candidate gives his unhesitating support.

Negro equality and negro suffrage are the essential elements in that amendment. By it the negro is made the equal of the white man in all his "privileges and immunities." The right of Pennsylvania to make laws to regulate the migration of negroes into the State is denied and she is deprived of her just share of representation in Congress unless her Constitution be amended and the negro allowed to vote.

The Radical candidates for Governor and for U. S. Senator; their leaders of public sentiment; their speakers and their newspapers are open advocates of this amendment, and their practice accords with their profession, for they mingle with the negro in social intercourse, in political conventions, and in public processions.

We hold that the negro is not the equal of the white man, and, whilst we accord to him freedom and protection of person, with the right to enjoyment of the fruits of his labor and aid in intellectual advancement, we affirm that our own race is entitled to control the entire machinery of the government.

Sustain this amendment, and you give the negro the right to aid in governing you; defeat it and you maintain your own right of sovereignty.

Every man who votes for Geary or for a Radical candidate for Congress, votes as distinctly for negro suffrage and negro equality as if they were printed on his ballot.

DEMOCRATS OF PENNSYLVANIA!

Power is no longer against you, but ranges itself upon your side. Opportunities for fraud do not exist. Aid comes to you from the ranks of the enemy. No Democrat who voted for McClellan votes against you now; your brethren are aroused from the Lakes to the Delaware. A change of five per cent. upon the vote of 1864 will sweep your opponents out of existence. You can count it in every election district in the Commonwealth; and if you will but execute the details of your organization, success is certain.

Faith in your principles, courage in the contest, and a determination to poll every Conservative vote, are the only requisites to an assured victory.

By order of the Democratic State Committee.

WM. A. WALLACE,
Chairman.

GEN. BUTLER, who, we believe, intends to stump Pennsylvania for Gen. Geary, indicated his preference for negro suffrage, last week in this emphatic manner:

"Had the negro been armed, the result would have been far different. We armed him with the musket when he was fit to use it; shall we not arm him with the ballot? There is a prejudice against the negro on the question of labor. When the labor-saving machinery was introduced into England, the laboring classes rose and destroyed it, because they thought it would take away the work that brought them bread.

"Suppose we were only looking for expediency. The States must come back. We want a loyal constituency in those States. Where will they come from? As a matter of self-protection, as a matter of economy, the negro must have a vote."

$300 Extra Bounty for the Black.

$100 Extra Bounty for the White Soldier.

Congress, in 1866, voted the black soldier $300 for extra bounty, and appropriated the money to pay it.

The white veteran gets $100 extra bounty, and Congress appropriated NO MONEY to pay it. $2,000 EXTRA PAY for Congressmen, in cash: no money for the white soldier. Seven millions IN CASH, for the Freedmen's Bureau, and no money for the white soldier.

No white soldier gets more than $100 as extra bounty. Every negro soldier gets $300 extra bounty.

Many of the white soldiers served three years. None of the negroes served more than two years.

GEARY IS FOR CONGRESS AND THE NEGRO.

CLYMER is for the President, the Convention and the White man.

Geary calls his fellow soldiers, "Shysters and Cowards, Skulkers and Hospital Bummers."

Geary says: "I am not prepared to deny the Right of Voting to the Colored Man."

The Torch and Turpentine Way to Pass Constitutional Amendments.

From the New York World, Sept. 24.

Greeley is making a feeble effort to represent himself and his fellows of the Radical party as having a civil war forced upon them by President Johnson. Poor innocent lambs!—(sheep, perhaps, would be a better word for the "just once" hero)—see how the tender-hearted and long-suffering disciples of the Torch-and-Turpentine gospel struggle desperately to avert further trouble.

Forney, at Lackawanna, there threatened a Torch-and-Turpentine war unless the Southern States accept the constitutional amendment—which the Herald joins in trying to force upon them. This is his language:

"If the Southern people do not ratify this (negro-equalization) amendment, or if they defeat it, what then? I think I see by the glitter of your eyes, and I know by the throbbing of my heart, that if they should ever be guilty of this new infatuation, the war that would ensue would establish this fact, that that which has passed was as but child's play, or as a pic-nic, to that which will come. The army that will go to the Southern country will go there to stay; it will not be an army of invasion but an army of migration; it will not go there to revenge, but to extirpate. Brownlow's remedy will indeed be tried; there will be three columns, the one to kill, the second to burn, the third to divide the plantations among the men that go down the second time to avenge the insulted flag of our country. I see this sublime resolve in the glitter of your eyes, and I feel it in the throbbing of my heart—I feel it every where—I hear it in the trumpet voice of destiny. That we shall not prevail against these men is to expect that God is dead."

Radical Sentiments.

At a Radical meeting in New York, last week, John Cochran said, "that those before him who had been mustered out of service were now called upon once more to prepare to take up the musket for the maintenance of those principles for which they had fought for four years."

The speaker was loudly applauded by the audience, his warlike strains evidently touching a sympathetic chord in the breast of his hearers. When he exclaimed: "Woe, woe betide that people which forgets its debt of gratitude to the negro race," cheers and applause greeted the sentiment. The concluding portion of his remarks was to the effect that the service rendered to the country by negroes during the war entitled them to the right of suffrage.

Gen. Barlow, the radical candidate for Secretary of the State of New York, also declared in favor of negro suffrage, and demanded that the Republican party should come square up to that work.

Horace Greeley addressed the meeting, and said: He wanted a Government under which all loyal men, regardless of color, should have equal rights. He was going to fight it out on that line, and he hoped all true Americans would take the same stand. Mr. Greeley was loudly applauded.

A series of resolutions were read and adopted. They were essentially a repetition of the Syracuse platform, with the addition of one in favor of negro suffrage.

The American Republican says that "Black is the loyal color at the South, as white is the disloyal." This is not complimentary to Brownlow and Botts.

The same paper in a later issue advocates negro suffrage, and says that—

"THE BLACKS IN AN EMINENT DEGREE SAVED THE COUNTRY DURING THE WAR."

Let us see about this:

White troops in service, 2,154,311.

Negro troops in service, 180,000.

There were just twelve times as many white troops in the service as there were black ones, and yet the negroes, we are told, "saved the country."

The white soldiers are asked to endorse this infamous sentiment by voting for Geary.

NEAR Bellville, Texas, lately, three men had a desperate fight with a monster rattlesnake, fourteen feet long and six inches thick! They killed him. He had forty-two rattles, indicating that he was forty-five years old.

A SQUAD of negroes was lately imported into Bellefonte and put to work on laying down the water pipes. The disunion contractors refused to employ white men. Elect Gen. Geary, and that will be the result in all parts of the State.

DAVID HOWSARE, of Southampton

POOR DIRECTOR,

MICHAEL DIEHL, of Colerain.

AUDITOR,

JOHN D. LUCAS, of Bloody Run.

ELECTION, TUESDAY, Oct. 9.

FOR ASSEMBLY.

We are authorized to announce Col. John H. Filler of Bedford county, as an independent candidate for Assembly, subject to the decision of the people on the second Tuesday of October next.

THE DEVIL UNCHAINED!

The nethermost hell must have spewed out its vilest fiend; the toughest devil of all the damned that are roasting in purgatorial fires, must have revisited earth; nay, the prince of Pandemonium himself must be unchained; for no human heart could conceive so malignant, so wicked and so diabolical a trick as that attempted to be palmed off upon the public in a telegram sent from this place, the tenor of which is that Mr. Meyers, the Democratic candidate for Senator, in a late speech eulogized J. Wilkes Booth. The miserable, unanointed, unwashed scoundrel who sent that telegram dares not face Mr. Meyers and acknowledge its authorship. He is a liar, a villain and a coward! His stabs in the dark are those of an assassin whose heart is blacker than that of Booth, but unlike Booth's, his blows, though nerved with a malicious and deadly intent, are perfectly harmless and only recoil upon those whom he would serve. Avaunt, thou cowardly devil! "Get thee back into the tempest, and the Night's Plutonian shore!" In other words, go to the Devil who has a mortgage upon you for a hundred times the value of your petty three cent soul!

What for Bedford County?

Shall Bedford county have representation in the next Legislature? That is the question. The Constitution of Pennsylvania gave Bedford county separate representation and under it one John Cessna once obtained a seat in the House of Representatives, though largely defeated in the district, Somerset and Bedford. If Bedford county was then entitled to separate representation, why should she not be now? If Bedford is to be represented in the next Legislature, by her own citizens, she must be represented by Col. Filler and B. F. Meyers. There are no other candidates for either branch of the Legislature, in Bedford county. Hence Bedford county must be unrepresented in the Legislature, or represented by Somerset and Fulton men, if Filler and Meyers are not elected.

A CALCULATION.

The Radical papers of this Congressional district have been flattering their readers with calculations on the vote of the district, which are about as near the truth as Munchausen's story about climbing to the moon on a bean-stalk. Now, we will give some figures:

	Democratic.	Disunion.
Adams,	350 maj.
Bedford,	500 "
Franklin,	100 "
Fulton,	280 "
Somerset,		900
	1,230
	900
Dem. maj.	330

We Can Do It Again.

In 1864, Bedford county gave McClellan 631 majority. She can do it again, if her full Democratic vote be polled. There are 3,000 Democratic voters in Bedford county. Let them all be got to the polls and our majority cannot fall below 600. Now let us see whether the full vote cannot be polled.

Wrong End Foremost!

The Radicals won't agree that the Southern States shall come back to the Union, unless they come in black end foremost. We object to that! We want the white end foremost.

To the Polls.

Forward, the whole Line! From left to right, from Woodberry to Centreville, from Ray's Hill to Buena Vista, charge! You are fighting for a glorious cause! Democracy, the brightest jewel in the historian's pen, the sublimest theme on the poet's page, the grandest theory that ever came from the statesman's brain; Democracy, the corner-stone of liberty, the life-blood of the nation, the very breath in the nostrils of the people; Democracy, the gift of heaven to a free and virtuous people, the blood-bought legacy of our Revolutionary fathers, the gentle baptism, sprinkled upon the greatest people that ever lived; O, will you not all rally, rally as one man for Democracy? Come, old men, who would see peace and re-union ere you close your eyes in everlasting sleep! Come, ye middle-aged, who would do a good work for yourselves and posterity! Come, youth, with your heart of fire and your visions of a glorious future! Gather around that banner which has never been trailed in the dust, which bears upon it thirty-six stars, the emblem of an unbroken Union, come and do battle under its bright and glorious folds.

"Strike! till the last dark foe expires,
Strike! for your altars and your fires,
Strike! for the green graves of your sires,
God and your native land!"

Another Draft!

Quotas for Bedford County!

Democrats of Bedford county! On Tuesday next you can and must poll 3,000 votes! If you get out every Democrat to the polls, you can and will do it. Geary cannot get over 2400, to do his best. This would leave Clymer 600 majority. In order that the men in each township may know what they will have to do in order to poll this number of votes, we give the following quotas. Let every district strive to come up to and if possible to exceed these figures. Now, men, fill your quotas! Now, good and true and faithful working-men, strive as you have never striven before! Roll up your sleeves and let's give them thunder! The several districts will please give us the following Democratic vote:

Bedford bor.,	140
Bedford tp.,	280
Broad Top,	75
Bloody Run,	35
Coaldale,	15
C. Valley,	200
Colerain,	180
Harrison,	85
Hopewell,	70
Juniata,	195
Londonderry,	110
Liberty, Saxton,	120
Monroe,	125
Napier,	190
Prov. E.	40
Prov. W.	50
Schellsburg,	50
Southampton,	275
Snake Spring,	85
St. Clair,	240
Union,	160
Woodberry M.,	150
Woodberry S.,	130
	3,000

Wagons! Wagons!

Southampton township is very extended in territory and many of its voters must travel a great distance to get to the polls. But old Southampton must poll every Democratic vote within its borders at this election. The same may be said of Cumberland Valley and several other townships. Let wagons be prepared in every nook and corner of these townships and let the voters ride out to the polls. Let the Disunionists hear thunder from these districts. Attend to the wagons, boys!

Front Face!

Eyes right! Flankers, advance! Now, boys, CHARGE! Hurrah! Hurrah! Hurrah! CLYMER leads the van! Follow the white plume of your gallant leader! The black feather will be doffed before your irresistible onset! Here we go over the enemy's breastworks! Geary's ditch is on the wrong side! Press on! Now they fly! Disunion surrenders! The flag of thirty-six stars floats in triumph over the Keystone State! Hip, Hip, Hurrah!

Justice!

We appeal to our "Republican" friends who know, that instead of eulogizing the assassin Booth, we denounced the crime he committed and condemned any thing that might be said in its favor, to say whether it is not an outrage to attempt to blacken our good name by representing us as saying the very opposite of what we did say? We are proud to say that we have many personal friends among the "Republicans" who cannot fail to see the foul attempt to injure us in this unfair and contemptible manner. We ask for justice at their hands—will they accord it?

THE GREAT ISSUE AT THE COMING ELECTION IS THE QUESTION OF NEGRO SUFFRAGE.—Thad. Stevens (see Bedford Inquirer).

Now for Clymer!

Honest Hiester Clymer, of Berks County! Who would not vote for him in preference to the renegade Geary who has changed his politics half a dozen times for the sake of getting office; who hid himself in a ditch at Chepultepec, and who ran and left his brave soldiers in the lurch at Snickersville! Why, even the Franklin Repository, so late as last week, spoke of Clymer as a man of "BLAMELESS PERSONAL CHARACTER"—the Franklin Repository, edited by Col. McClure who addressed the Radical Mass Meeting, in Bedford, on Tuesday evening of Court week Now, for Clymer and the Union!

The Union forever, hurrah boys, hurrah,
Down with Thad. Stevens
And up with the law,
For we'll rally 'round the flag, boys,
We'll rally once again,
Shouting the battle-cry of Freedom!

Hon. J. McD. Sharpe.

One of the noblest men in this Congressional district, is Hon. J. McD. Sharpe, of Chambersburg. He is an honorable, talented, educated gentleman and will reflect credit upon the district if elected. We commend him to the support of the people and bespeak for him the united support of the Democracy of Bedford county.

O. E. Shannon.

Now, what Democrat can refuse to vote for O. E. Shannon, a man who has done as much for the party as any man in Bedford county, a man who has always been true, a man who is respected and loved by all who know him? We say, cling to Shannon! You cannot find it in your hearts to "scratch" him! What! Would you strike down a true man like Shannon? Impossible! If Esq. Lingenfelter had remained in the Democratic party, he would have received your votes; he could have asked them with a good grace. But, clever fellow as he is, he has done the Democratic party too much harm by his course, to ask a reward for what he has done. We are sorry, and we know many others are sorry that he acted as he did, but he chose to do so, and he cannot blame us now for refusing to vote for him. Stick to Shannon and give him an old-fashioned majority.

Robert Steckman.

Democrats, you have an excellent man for Sheriff. Robert Steckman is widely known as one of the best business men in the county. He is a straightforward, honest, fair-minded man. Stand by him and elect him by an overwhelming majority.

David Howsare, Esq.

There is no better man in Bedford county, morally speaking, than David Howsare. Besides, he is a man of good business qualifications, writes a good hand, is a man of excellent judgment and will do justice in all matters pertaining to the office for which he is a candidate. He will make a first-rate Commissioner. We refer all who doubt this statement to Hon. Job Mann, who has had many business transactions with him.

Honest Mike Diehl.

Every body in this neighborhood knows honest old Michael Diehl. He will make a first rate Director of the Poor. No man can say a word against him. Stand up for him, Democrats! He is a good and true man and deserves your support.

Geo. W. Gump, Esq.

For Associate Judge, our ticket bears the name of G. W. Gump. Mr. Gump is a gentleman eminently qualified for the position for which he is a candidate. He gave a son to the service of the Union, a noble boy, who sleeps the quiet slumber of death on the banks of the Juniata. Mr. Gump has always been a patriot and a good Union man.

Terribly Scared!

The great uprising of the people against Disunion and Negro Equality, thunders its terrors from the political Sinai, in the ears of the Radical leaders. They are frightened to death! They are depressed, dispirited, almost broken-hearted! Poor fellows! They whistle like a boy going through a grave-yard after night, to keep up their courage! It's all over with them! They shall return

"To the vile dust from whence they sprung,
Unwept, unhonored and unsung!"

Lying Handbills!

The Radical Disunionists are flooding the county with hand-bills containing the most malicious and outrageous lies. Beware of them! They are gotten up to decieve!

Colonizing.

Look out for imported voters. We have information that the enemy have imported into Broad Top and other districts along the railroad, a large number of men from Maryland and other States, for the purpose of voting them at the coming election. We caution the the Democrats of these districts and particularly of Broad Top tp., against this scheme. Let a challenger be at the polls and let every stranger be sworn as to his residence in the State and district. Also, let his papers be examined, if a foreigner. Numbers of these men vote annually at the Broad Top polls on their first papers, or fraudulent ones. This must be prevented. Look out, men of Broad Top! And let the election board also look out, for such frauds shall not go unpunished.

Buying Voters.

Last year the Abolitionists used money to keep Democratic voters at home in this county. We have spotted the man who furnished it, and the men who were bought. This game is being tried on again, and we know the men engaged in it. If they attempt to carry out their nefarious design, we shall see that the Court of Quarter Sessions has some business with them. Stick a pin right there!

Defaming the Dead.

The Radical leaders have fixed up a list of so-called "deserters," whom they propose to disfranchise, and among this list are the names of numbers of soldiers who laid down their lives for their country. In the list for Bloody Run borough, appears the name of Herman Klahre, who died whilst in the service. Isn't this a shame?

Last Cards.

Beware of eleventh hour roor-backs, such as the hand-bills circulated by the Radicals about Gen. Grant, and others of a similar character. They are all false, from beginning to end, and intended to gull the unwary. Beware of them!

Voting Minors.

The enemy will undertake to vote persons under age by having them assessed and their taxes paid. This is an old trick of theirs and our friends should object to and examine every voter whose beard looks rather downy.—Watch this game!

We're all a-climbing.

We Clymer boys are all a-climbing! climb! climb! climbing! We're all a-climbing over Geary's works! And we'll climb to the citadel and plant our banner, in victory, upon its highest pinnacle! For we're all a-climbing, &c.

Tie Your Tickets!

Our friends in every election district should have their tickets ready cut, folded and tied before election-day! Have your ammunition well prepared! Let it be to the enemy as the needle-gun of the Prussians was to the Austrians! Ready, AIM, FIRE!

Early to the Polls.

Go to the polls EARLY! Vote at once and then see that your neighbors turn out and vote. Get out every man!

GLORIOUS OLD ALDSTADT!

If ever there was a friend of the rights of the white man, it is Sheriff Aldstadt. He has always stood by the liberties of the people. When the ballot-box was surrounded by armed men sent to intimidate voters in 1864, he stood between them and the people. So now when a set of political desperadoes are trying to disfranchise white men for the purpose of enfranchising negroes, he refuses to yield to them one inch. Hurrah for Aldstadt! What does he care for your scare-crow of an Abolition prosecution! He knows the right and dares maintain it, and he will be sustained.

WHITE END FOREMOST!

The difference between Clymer and Geary is just this: Clymer is in favor of bringing the Southern States into the Union white end foremost; Geary is in favor of bringing them in black end foremost or not at all. Which end are you in favor of?

General Grant.

General Grant has again rebuked the Radicals in their attempt to manufacture political opinions for him. In a letter to a Brigadier General who had attributed certain political sentiments to Grant, the latter makes use of the following language:

"You nor no man living is authorized to speak for me in political matters. I want every man to vote according to his own judgment without influence from me."

Read.

Letter from a late "Republican."

The following extracts are from a letter of Dr. J. Sigafoos, brother of Rev. Geo. Sigafoos, formerly of this place, who has been a life-long "Republican" and who was a surgeon in the army during the war. Read it:

WEST MILTON, MIAMI CO., O. Sept. 23, 1866.

DEAR BROTHER:—I am determined now to leave here, for the Radical Disunionists are getting so tyrannical that a man's life is not safe if he will not agree to let them traduce the character of the best men in the land and say nothing. In the last few weeks they have been busy calling President Johnson a "traitor." A member of Congress said here in a speech, "Johnson, the old traitor, would and should by his vote, be tried for treason and driven from his seat." When they try this game, you will hear of your brother James going to the "wars again." I helped to put down the Southern rebellion and will go again to put down the Northern traitors, if they do not cease their usurpation. If I were President Johnson, Congress should not legislate another day, unless when they meet again, the clerk of the House calls the roll of all the States. There is no time for Union men to while away. We had better "take the bull by the horns" at once. If we only beat them at the ballot-box in the coming election, we are safe. Their treason would be so glaring, if they would attempt, after a defeat at the polls, to overthrow the government, that they could muster but a small force to back them. Many of the soldiers are leaving their sinking ship. How a Union soldier can support such a motley crew is more than I can divine. Fred. Douglass, Ben Butler Anna Dickinson, Randolph (darkey) and Theo. Tilton, marching into their den, two and two, like the beasts into Noah's ark, "each after their kind," and not much difference in the kind either! Phew! Get away with such a mixture! I have just read the speech of that old arch traitor, Thad. Stevens, made at Bedford, a few days since! A more damnable black-guard does not exist. He is now getting the people of the North just where Jeff Davis & Co. got the South before its destruction, and let me say to the people of Bedford county, that if they sustain Thaddeus Stevens' traitorous schemes, THEY WILL HEAR THE THUNDER OF CANNON AND THE CRASH OF CONTENDING ARMS in every State and county of the North, before three years shall roll around. The soldiers at Cleveland have given us to understand where they will be found. Let the Disunion leaders of the North beware, or they will find themselves down at Fortress Monroe, in irons, keeping company with Jeff Davis, some of these days. For twenty years I have voted in opposition to the Democratic party, but now for the sake of the Union and for the sake of peace, I shall vote its ticket and hope all good Union men in your county will do likewise.

JAMES SIGAFOOS.

To the Peace People.

There is a large body of religionists, who are among our best citizens, and whom we respect very highly, whose creed is adverse to war, and to participation in battle. These men profess to love peace and to desire harmony among men. Hence, we are induced to appeal to them to aid us in restoring peace and fraternal relations between the people of the North and the South. Do you not see that the Radical party is striving to keep up bitterness and bad blood between the people of the two sections? Do they not appeal to the passions of the Northern people by denouncing and villifying the people of the South? Do they not scatter broad-cast prints of scenes during the late horrible war in order to excite hatred in the hearts of the Northern people as against those of the South? How then, if you are for peace and good will among men, can you approve of such conduct and how can you vote with such a party? We speak plainly. We address you as Dunkers, and Friends and as Peace Christians. Will you practice what you profess? Some of you will, we know. But even now the Radical leaders in this town boast that they have you in their leading strings and that they will have you vote contrary to the tenets of your own religious creed. Are they lying about you, or not? We shall see.

The Great Scare-crow!

The Radical Disunionists hang all their hopes upon scaring those persons whom they have branded as "deserters" from attending the election. This is their great scare-crow. Let no man be frightened thereat. Let every citizen go to the polls and DEMAND HIS VOTE. He cannot be hurt for it. Not a hair of his head will be touched. Go and vote—aye, VOTE AT THE RISK OF BULLETS!

Beware of Corruption.

The Radicals, here, are using every corrupt agency that can possibly be resorted to, to make a vote. Efforts of the most infamous character are being made all over the county. Fellow Democrats, good men and true, beware of them.

The Law of the Land.

DECISION OF THE SUPREME COURT, ON THE RIGHT OF SO-CALLED DESERTERS TO VOTE!

Election Officers, Read!

The following is the opinion of the Supreme Court in regard to the right of so-called "deserters" to vote. It declares the Act of Congress void and of course the act of the Legislature based upon the void Act of Congress is also void. A MAN MUST FIRST BE TRIED, CONVICTED AND SENTENCED as a deserter before he can be deprived of his right to vote. So say the Supreme Court. Read for yourselves:

The act of 1806 provided for general courts martial, and made minute and careful regulations for their organization, for the conduct of their proceedings, and for the approval or disapproval of their sentences. Subsequent acts made some changes, but they have not restrained the jurisdiction or diminished the powers of such courts. It is to such a code of laws, forming a system devised for the punishment of desertion, that the twenty-first section of the act of March 3, 1865, was added. It refers plainly to pre-existing laws. It has the single object of increasing the penalties, but it does not undertake to change or dispense with the machinery provided for punishing the crime. The common rules of construction demand that it be read as if it had been incorporated into former acts. And if it had been, if the act of 1806 and its supplements had prescribed that the penalty for desertion or failure to report within a designated time after notice or draft (which the act of 1865 declares desertion) should be punished, on conviction of the same, with forfeiture of citizenship and death, or in lieu of the latter, such other punishment as by the sentence of a court martial may be inflicted, would any one contend that any portion of this punishment could be inflicted without conviction and sentence? Assuredly not. And if not, so must the act of 1865 be construed now. It means that the forfeiture which it prescribes, like all other penalties for desertion, must be adjudged to the convicted person after trial by a court martial and sentence approved. For the conviction and sentence of such a court there can be no substitute. They alone establish the guilt of the accused and fasten upon him the legal consequences. Such, we think, is the true meaning of the act, a construction that cannot be denied to it without losing sight of all the previous legislation respecting the same subject matter, no part of which does this act profess to alter.

It may be added that this construction is not only required by the universally admitted rules of statutory interpretation, but it is in harmony with the personal rights secured by the Constitution, and which Congress must be presumed to have kept in view. It gives to the accused a trial before sworn judges, a right to challenge, an opportunity of defense, the privilege of hearing the witnesses against him, and of calling witnesses in his behalf. It preserves to him the common-law presumption of innocence until he has been adjudged guilty, according to the forms of law. It gives finality to a single trial. If tried by a court martial and acquitted, his innocence can never again be called in question, and he can be made to suffer no part of the penalties prescribed for guilt. On the other hand, if a record of conviction by a lawful court be not a prerequisite to suffering the penalty of the law, the act of Congress may work intolerable hardships. The accused will then be obliged to prove his innocence whenever the registry of the provost marshal is adduced against him. No decision of a board of election officers will protect him against the necessity of renewing his defense at every subsequent election, and each time with increased difficulty arising from the possible death or absence of witnesses. In many cases this may prove a gross wrong. It cannot be doubted that in some instances there were causes that prevented a return to service, or a report by persons registered as deserters by provost marshals, that would have been held justifying reasons by a court martial, or at least would have prevented an approval of the court's sentence. It is well known, also, that some who were registered deserters were, at the time, actually in the military service as volunteers, and honorably discharging their duties to the government. To hold that the act of Congress imposes upon such the necessity of proving their innocence, without any conviction of guilt, would be an unreasonable construction of the act, and would be attributing to the National Legislature an intention not warranted by the language and connection of the enactment.

It follows that the judgment of the Court below, upon the case stated, was right. The plaintiff not having been convicted of desertion and failure to return to the service, or to report to a provost marshal, and not having been sentenced to the penalties and forfeiture of the law, was entitled to vote.

Election Officers,

BEWARE

Look Out For Prosecutions!

The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania have decided that no so-called deserter can be deprived of his right to vote by an election-board. A man must have been tried and convicted of desertion, and a copy of his conviction must be laid before the election-board before he can be deprived of his vote. Such is the decision of the Supreme Court and any Judge or Inspector of election, who will refuse any so-called "deserter" the right to vote, WILL BE PROSECUTED AND PUNISHED! A few days ago, an election-board was tried in Bellefonte, Centre county, for refusing a so-called "deserter" the right to vote. Judge Linn (a "Republican" Judge) presided at the trial. The "Republican" Judge and Inspector who rejected the complainants vote were convicted, whilst the Democratic Inspector, who protested against their action, was acquitted. The following account of this trial is from the Bellefonte Watchman:

CONVICTION OF AN ELECTION BOARD FOR REFUSING TO RECEIVE THE VOTE OF AN ALLEGED "DESERTER."—The trial of Josiah H. Brown, D. M. Betts and D. H. Yeager, Election Board of Snow Shoe township, for illegally refusing the vote of John Dayton, at the October election in 1865, resulted in the conviction of Brown and Betts and the acquittal of Yeager, the Court having instructed the jury that they could not convict the latter under the evidence.

The facts of the case, as given in evidence on the trial, are about as follows: John Dayton, a man of foreign birth, presented himself at the window at the October election in 1865, offering his ballot in one hand and his naturalization paper and a receipt for taxes in the other. He was challenged by one of the Board as a deserter, as he had been absent from the township during one of the drafts. They refused to allow him to vote unless he would take an oath that he had not left the township to avoid the draft. Mr. Dayton refused to do this and his vote was rejected, Mr. Yeager protesting against the action of the Board and being over-ruled by his companions. Mr. Orvis assisted the District Attorney in the prosecution and Mr. McIllister conducted the defence. The jury were out but a short time when they returned with a verdict of guilty as to Brown and Betts and not guilty as to Yeager.

We hope the effect of this trial may be to prevent all such illegal attempts to deprive qualified voters of their rights in the future.

HOW THE TICKETS ARE TO BE VOTED.

Read this Carefully.

The Legislature, last winter, passed a law which changes the manner of voting. All State officers voted for will be voted on one slip, labeled "State:" all county officers and members of Congress, Senators, and members of the Legislature voted for, will be voted on another slip, labeled "County;" and all Judges of Courts voted for, will be voted on still another slip, labeled "Judiciary;" which divides the ticket, at the present election into three slips. All tickets should be ready cut, folded and tied, before election-day. Let Democrats attend to this everywhere, and see that all the ticket is included in their ballot. The ticket will be printed as follows:

STATE.

Governor,
Hiester Clymer.

COUNTY.

Congress,
J. McDowell Sharpe.
Senator,
B. F. Meyers.
Assembly,
Hiram Findlay,
John H. Filler.
Prothonotary, Register and Recorder, Clerk of the Courts, &c.,
O. E. Shannon.
Sheriff,
Robert Steckman.
Commissioner,
David Howsare.
Poor Director,
Michael Diehl.
Auditor,
John D. Lucas.

JUDICIARY.

Associate Judge,
G. W. Gump.

The ticket must be cut apart at each of the wide spaces, with the words "State," "County," and "Judiciary" folded out.

THE GREAT ISSUE AT THE COMING ELECTION IS THE QUESTION OF NEGRO RIGHTS."—Thad Stevens (see Bedford Inquirer.)

NEW PARIS, PA., Oct. 1, 1866.

MESSRS. MEYERS & MENGEL:—It is rumored that I have forsaken the ranks of the old renowned Democratic party, which gave me political birth, simply because I discontinued the paper (I done so for my own private reasons, at this time) and for not attending Mass Meetings. I deem it imprudent and incompatible with the teachings of the Bible to occupy the stump and the pulpit; neither do I feel disposed to carry politics into the sanctuary of the Ruler of the Universe, nor to promulgate the truths of the Gospel from the stump, but to "render to Cæsar from the the things that are Cæsar's." I wish it understood that I will cease to support the principles of the Democratic party when God dethrones my reason to that degree that I can not distinguish right from wrong, and when my nerves are unstrung to disable me from carrying a ballot to its legal deposit. Then and not till then will I cease to exert my humble influence in behalf of true Democracy. Yours, &c.,

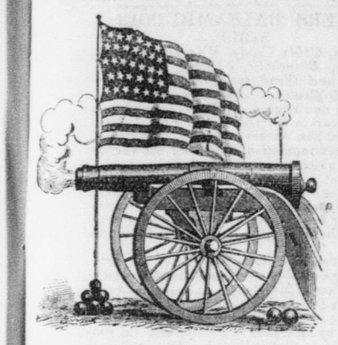
W. J. STATLER.

THE BEDFORD DEMOCRATIC BRASS BAND.—This excellent band, under the lead of Prof. G. B. Heffley and L. Defibaugh, has done splendid service in the present campaign. The boys deserve great credit for their rapid proficiency in learning to play and for the sacrifices they have made for the party. Mr. S. McFerran, a "Republican," who belongs to the band, and as clever a fellow as you find any where, also deserves the thanks of the Democracy for the service he has rendered in the band. In fact the boys are all clever fellows and we would like to travel with them a whole year.

"A VILLAGE CAMP MEETING" will commence in the Methodist Church, in Bedford, on Friday evening, 12th inst., and continue during the ensuing week. Public services will be held three times a day, at the hours of 10½ A. M. and 3 and 7 P. M. The meeting will be conducted under the charge of the Presiding Elder of the Juniata District. The services of several able ministers have been secured for the occasion. On Sabbath at 3 o'clock, P. M., a Centenary Meeting will be held, at which several addresses will be delivered.

A. R. MILLER, Pastor.

OLD BEDFORD ABLAZE!



The Greatest Meetings Ever Held in the County!

The Hills and Valleys Reverberate with the Shouts of Freemen Marching to Victory!

O DEAD STATES, NO NEGRO SUFFRAGE, NO BROKEN UNION!

Bloody Run, Hopewell, Woodberry, Centreville and Schellsburg alive with Enthusiastic Democrats!

reat Crowds, Great Processions, Great Speeches, Great Enthusiasm, and yet to crown all, a Great Victory!

The grandest and most imposing series of Mass Meetings ever held in this unty, were held during the past week your gallant Democracy. These meetings commenced at Mrs. Morgart's, in West Providence township, on Monday, pt. 24. A large delegation from Bedford, headed by the Democratic Brass Band, went to this meeting. It was joined on its way by delegations from Colerain, Snake Spring, and Bloody Run. The last named delegation had a banner with a portrait of President Johnson and underneath it were suspended two dead ducks, the one labeled Geary, the other Thad. Stevens. Another feature was an old fashioned game rooster sitting, proud as a monarch, among the branches of a hickory. The enthusiasm was intense and every thing passed off in fine style. Powerful and convincing speeches were made by Hon. J. McDowell Sharpe, and G. H. Spang and O. E. Shannon, Esqrs. We have not been handed a list of the officers of this meeting.—In the evening an impromptu meeting was organized at Bloody Run, in front of Black's Hotel. Able speeches were made by Hon. J. McDowell Sharpe and W. C. Schaffer, Esq. During the speaking some rowdies, set on by some of the pious Radicals of Bloody Run, undertook to break up the meeting, by interrupting the speaker and throwing stones into the crowd, but some of the gallant Democratic boys "went for" the scoundrels, who beat a hasty retreat. This meeting was very large and was a grand success. Bloody Run will do its duty at the polls.

HOPEWELL.

The next meeting was at Hopewell, on Tuesday following. A very large crowd was in attendance. In fact, it was the largest meeting ever held in Hopewell. John B. Fluck, Esq., acted as President; Johnson Hafer, J. Pearson, J. C. Figard, Jesse Wright, Stephen Wright, Wm. Foster and Daniel Roland, as Vice Presidents; and M. A. Hunter, George Rhodes, and Wilson Johnson, Secretaries. Speeches were made by Hon. J. McDowell Sharpe, J. Palmer, Esq., and others. The Bedford Democratic Brass Band were present and entertained the crowd with most delightful music.

The meeting at Woodberry, on Wednesday, was a large and splendid one. The Democrats of Woodberry know how to get up good meetings. The weather, however, was very unfavorable, and several delegations, beautifully arranged, were prevented from attending. Notwithstanding, the meeting was one of the largest ever held in Woodberry. Great speeches were made by Hon. J. McDowell Sharpe, and G. H. Spang and O. E. Shannon, Esqrs., and others. The Bedford Democratic Brass Band was in attendance and enlivened the occasion with its choicest airs. Daniel Barley, Esq., presided at this meeting, assisted by M. P. Hartman, Dr. C. S. Olleig, W. Wimer, G. S. Potter, D. B. Bulger, S. Fishack, Levi Stephy, as Vice Presidents, and Henry Fluck, Rudolph Hoover, Samuel Cramer, John I. Noble, James Carey, C. Brown, and J. Z. Kochendarfer, as Secretaries.

PLEASANTVILLE.

Here is where you get your big meetings! Here's where the St. Clair boys to pour out their mighty legions! Ah! reader, you should have seen this rally of the freemen of Old St. Clair. It would have done your heart good! Large delegations poured into the town from all directions, with flags and banners, and a large wagon, filled with voters, drawn by ever so many horses, was in the procession. Speeches were made by Hon. J. McDowell Sharpe, and others. The meeting was one of the grandest successes ever known in St. Clair township. Every body was enthusiastic, and every thing went merry as a marriage bell. The Democratic Brass Band was in attendance. No list of the officers of this meeting.

SCHELLSBURG.

Still better! Grand and glorious and peerless was the scene we witnessed at Schellsburg, on Friday last. Such a string of wagons, (longer than the one Geary left behind him when he run at Shickersville,) we never saw before! And such a crowd of people! And such excellent feeling and such lively enthusiasm! Over 100 wagons were counted in line, the town of Schellsburg having been almost surrounded by them. A fine delegation went up from Bedford. This delegation had among its devices two game cocks standing above a dead goose, and also a banner with a picture of President Johnson with the dead ducks, Stevens and Geary, suspended beneath. The Juniata delegation, of which our young friend J. A. Cessna was marshal, was composed of 20 wagons, all filled with voters. This delegation did great credit to Juniata township. St. Clair also had a splendid delegation, in which was a wagon filled chock full of Clymer men, drawn by 12 gray horses, with a rider on each horse. St. Clair and Juniata know how to do things. At this meeting JOHN SILL, Esq., (that sterling old Democrat who is always in the harness,) presided, assisted by the following named Vice Presidents: Peter Winegardner, Henry Egolf, Emanuel Statler, Jacob P. Otto, Arthur Rose, Wm. Rock, sr., Andrew Crisman, Philip Cuppet, Napier; Geo. Beckley, sr., Sol. Shrader, Jos. Moore, Jacob Bowser, Philip Sleek, Henry F. Smith, Jennings Mock, David T. Ake, Conrad Otto, St. Clair; G. W. Powell, Caspar Smith, John Turner, Philip Harkleroad, Harrison; W. Kellerman, Josiah Miller, Esq., Londonderry; Michael Hillegas, Uriah Adams, Henry Struckman, John Hillegas, John J. Hughes, John T. Kegg, Jos. T. Long, M. Hickey, Thomas Hodel, Jacob Beltz, Jos. Thomas, Alvy Boylan, John McKinney, Juniata; Jacob Bolinger, Hiram Lentz, Bedford borough; and J. Wills, and S. Defibaugh, Bedford township; with James Sill, Thomas Spicer, and Joseph Garber, as Secretaries. A stand was erected in front of Snively's hotel, from which speeches were made by Hon. J. McDowell Sharpe, Geo. H. Spang and O. E. Shannon, Esqrs. The Bedford Democratic Brass Band were present and played their liveliest airs. This was decidedly the largest political gathering ever assembled in Schellsburg. The "upper end" is awake! Look out, Radicals, Napier, Juniata, Harrison, Londonderry, Schellsburg and St. Clair are thundering at your gates.

CUMBERLAND VALLEY.

The "unterrified" of Little Berks turned out en masse, at Centreville, on Saturday, the 29th ult. This was decidedly one of the largest meetings ever assembled in that township. About noon the procession entered the town, led by the Democratic Brass Band from Bedford, with banners up and flags flying. It was a goodly sight to see. Besides the wagons which made the procession nearly a quarter of a mile long, there were a large number mounted on horses, who came in, in fine style. The town was already crowded when the delegations arrived—and all along the streets of Centreville cheer after cheer went up to welcome them. After the delegations had arrived, and the band and speakers had partaken of a very good dinner at the hotel, they proceeded to the grounds, which were arranged better than any others we have seen in the county. The arch composed of evergreens, ornamented with flags, over the front of the speakers stand, displayed very fine taste indeed. The meeting was called to order by J. W. Dickerson, Esq., Chairman of the Democratic County Committee, who nominated A. McClellan, of Colerain township, as President; after which John Blair, Esq., proposed the following Vice Presidents and Secretaries: From Colerain, John A. Gump, Renben Smith, George W. Diehl; Cumb'd Valley, W. G. Huster, Paul Wertz, Samuel Elliott; Londonderry, Isaac Burket, Geo. Shafer, Henry Miller; Southampton, Thomas Donahoe, Archibald Perdew, Lennox Ash; Cumberland, Md., J. W. Jones, R. B. Johnson, Mr. Peale, Alfred Spates; Bedford Borough, A. W. Mower, Sam'l Stiver, Millward Moorehead; Secretaries, E. F. Kerr, Philip Huzzard, Burton Edsall, of Bedford Bor.; A. Snowden, John B. Whip, John Dicken, of Cumb'd Valley; Michael Wagoner, W. Donahoe, John Robison, of Southampton; Asa Wilison, Wm. Jones, Jacob Snyder, of Cumberland, Md. After the organization, the meeting was ably addressed by Hon. J. McDowell Sharpe, our candidate for Congress, followed by Gen. Sullivan, of Md., (who made one of the most effective and popular speeches we ever listened to,) and G. H. Spang and O. E. Shannon, Esqrs. After which the meeting adjourned with three cheers for Johnson, Clymer and the Union. Taken altogether this was one of the most decided successes of the campaign.

STONERSTOWN.

A very large Democratic meeting was held at Stonerstown, on Saturday evening, Sept. 22. John Hohman was appointed President; Charles Maloy and Jacob Kensinger, Vice Presidents; and Eli Hoover and Geo. Rhodes, Secretaries. The meeting was addressed by J. W. Dickerson, Esq., in a very able speech, after which it adjourned to Mrs. Tricker's hotel, where it was addressed by Major R. Bruce Petriken, of Huntingdon, in a very able, eloquent and argumentative manner. At the meeting at Mrs. Tricker's, S. S. Fluck, Esq., acted as President; C. Maloy as Vice President, and Mr. Woodward as Secretary. Liberty and Saxton are all right and will do their whole duty.

MONROE, HOPEWELL, &c.

The Democrats of Monroe and Hopewell townships, recently held meetings at Clearville, in the former, and at Suter's and Grove's, in the latter township. We have not been furnished with the names of the officers of these meetings. We are informed that they were well attended. These meetings were addressed by J. W. Dickerson, Esq., and Hon. John Latta, of Westmoreland. A large Democratic meeting was also held at Fair Play, of which we have not been furnished the proceedings. The Democrats of Monroe, Hopewell and Broad Top, are active and determined, this time, to poll their full vote. Let them struggle on in the good fight, a few more days, and the victory will be won.

RAINSBURG.

Colerain speaks in thunder tones! The mass meeting on Monday night last, at Rainsburg, was the largest and most enthusiastic ever held there. In the early part of the evening delegations, with banners streaming, and with beautiful designs and mottoes, began pouring into the town, an unmistakable evidence that the people of Colerain were fully aroused. On motion of Alexander Gump, the meeting was organized by the appointment of Abraham Weisel, Esq., as President; Francis Ott, Henry W. Ressler, Wm. P. Morgart, Tobias Shafer, Jonathan Bowser, Jas. Cessna, Esq., Hugh Wilson, William Adams, Esq., George Bortz, A. J. McEldowny, John Gephart, Jacob Kegg, and David Howsare as Vice Presidents, and George Cessna, D. R. Anderson, Dr. J. J. Hughes, Wm. E. May and S. P. Kegg, as Secretaries. The speakers stand was most beautifully decorated with wreaths and flags, exhibiting the highest style of taste in its arrangement. The patriotic ladies of the valley graced the occasion with their bright smiles and sweet looks. The meeting was addressed by G. H. Spang, W. C. Schaffer, and O. E. Shannon, Esqrs., ably and eloquently, discussing the momentous issues of the day, and exposing the contemptible sophistries of the enemies of Constitutional Liberty, and the foes of the White Man's Government. The audience was attentive, appreciative and enthusiastic. The Bedford Democratic Brass Band enlivened the occasion by discoursing most excellent music. After repeated cheers for Johnson, Clymer and the Union, the meeting adjourned. Colerain will make for herself a glorious record on the 9th of October.

BEAR KILLED.—Two young lads, aged 13 years each, sons of Edward Conrad and Joseph Hite, of Union tp., and grandsons of our old friend John Conrad, Esq., killed a bear, a few days ago, which weighed 233 lbs. nett. The bear was killed by the second shot.—Pretty well done for the boys, but they are both Democrats and of course never miss their mark.

DR. DOUGLAS.—It will be noticed in our advertising columns, that this gentleman has opened an office two doors West of the Bedford Hotel, above Border's Silver Smith Store. The Doctor was surgeon during the war in the 1st N. Y. Regiment, and is a gentleman of experience and skill.

MARRIED.

ALLISON—HAMMER.—On the 25th ult., at the M. E. Parsonage in this place, by Rev. A. R. Miller, Mr. Joseph Allison and Miss Mary Amanda Hammer, both of Napier township.

HIBNER—DORGER.—On the 23d ult., at the Lutheran Parsonage, Bloody Run, by Rev. G. C. Probst, Mr. Daniel Hibner, of Fulton co., Pa., to Miss Hannah Dorger, of Bedford co.

HENDERSHOT—HIBNER.—At the same time and place, by the same, Mr. Charles Hendershot to Miss Minnie Hibner, both of Fulton co., Pa.

DIED.

DILL.—At her residence in Bedford, on the 18th ult., Susan Dill, aged 47 years, 6 months and 19 days. The deceased had been for many years a member of the M. E. church, during which time she was remarkable for her religious devotions.—Although in humble circumstances, yet she was the friend alike of the rich and of the poor, and possessed the confidence and esteem of both. The children loved her. It was not unusual to see them throng around her on the street with the merry greeting of "Aunt Susan!" The closing scene was a remarkable one. Death had no terrors for the dying saint. Her countenance lighted up with the joys of a full salvation, as weeping friends gathered around to hear the last "good bye." A solemn silence reigned throughout the room. It seemed as if

Bright angels had from glory come,
To bear the happy spirit home. PASTOR.

ONE PERSON for the office of Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

ONE PERSON in conjunction with the counties of Somerset, Fulton, Franklin and Adams for the office of Member of Congress of the United States.

ONE PERSON in conjunction with the counties of Somerset and Fulton, for the office of Senator of Pennsylvania.

TWO PERSONS, in conjunction with the counties of Somerset and Fulton, for the office of Members of the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania.

ONE PERSON for the office of Prothonotary, Register, Recorder and Clerk of the Quarter Sessions and Orphans' Court of Bedford county.

ONE PERSON for the office of Sheriff of Bedford county.

ONE PERSON for the office of Associate Judge of said county.

ONE PERSON for the office of Commissioner of said county.

ONE PERSON for the office of Poor Director of said county.

ONE PERSON for the office of Auditor of said county.

ONE PERSON for the office of Coroner of said county.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That every person excepting Justices of the Peace who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the United States, or of this State, or any city or corporated district, whether a commissioned officer or otherwise, a subordinate officer or agent who is or shall be employed under the legislative, executive or judiciary department of this State, or of any city, or of any incorporated district, and also, that every member of Congress and of the State Legislature, and of the select or common council of any city, or commissioners of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the time, the office or appointment of Judge, Inspector or Clerk of any election of this Commonwealth, and that no Inspector, Judge or other officer of such election shall be elegible to be then voted for.

And the said act of assembly entitled "an act relating to elections of this Commonwealth," passed July 2, 1819, further provides as follows, viz:

"That the Inspector and Judges shall meet at the respective places appointed for holding the election in the district at which they respectively belong, before 8 o'clock in the morning of the SECOND TUESDAY OF OCTOBER, and each said inspector shall appoint one clerk, who shall be a qualified voter of such district.

"In case the person who shall have received the highest number of votes for inspector shall not attend on the day of any election, then the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for Judge at the next preceding election shall act as Inspector in his place. And in case the person who has received the second highest number of votes for Inspector shall not attend, the person elected Judge shall appoint an Inspector in his place, and if any vacancy still continue in the board for the space of one hour after the time fixed by law for the opening of the election the qualified voters of the township, ward or district for which such officer shall have been elected, present at the election, shall elect one of their number to fill such vacancy.

"It shall be the duty of the several assessors respectively to attend at the place of holding every general, special or township election, during the whole time such election is kept open, for the purpose of giving information to the Inspectors and Judge, when called on, in relation to the right of any person assessed by them to vote at such election, and on such other matters in relation to the assessment of voters, as the said Inspectors or other of them shall from time to time require.

"No person shall be permitted to vote at any election as aforesaid, than a white citizen of the age of twenty-one or more, who shall have resided in this State at least one year, and in the election district where he offers to vote, ten days immediately preceding such election, and within two years paid a State or County tax, which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election. But a citizen of the United States who has previously been a qualified voter of this State and removed therefrom and returned, and who shall have resided in the election district and paid taxes aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote after residing in this State six months. Provided, That the white freemen, citizens of the United States, between the age of twenty-one and twenty two years who have resided in the election district ten days as aforesaid shall be entitled to vote, although they shall not have paid tax.

"No person shall be permitted to vote whose name is not contained in the list of taxable inhabitants, furnished by the Commissioners, unless: First, he produce a receipt of payment, within two years of State or County tax assessed agreeably to the Constitution, and give satisfactory evidence on his own oath or affirmation of another that he has paid such a tax, or in failure to produce a receipt shall make oath to the payment thereof; or second, if he claim a right to vote by being an elector between the age of twenty-one and twenty-two years shall depose on oath or affirmation, that he has resided in the State at least one year before his application, and make such proof of residence in the district as is required by this act, and that he does verily believe from the account given him that he is of the age aforesaid, and gives such other evidence as is required by this act, whereupon the name of the person so admitted to vote shall be inserted in the alphabetical list by the Inspector, and a note made opposite thereto by writing the word "tax," if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of having paid tax, and the word "age" if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of age, and in either case the reason of such a vote shall be called out to the clerks, who shall make a like note in the list of voters kept by them.

"In all cases where the name of the person claiming to vote is not found on the list furnished by the Commissioners, or his right to vote whether found thereon or not, is objected to by any qualified citizen, it shall be the duty of the Inspectors to examine such person on oath as to his qualifications, and if he claims to have resided within the State for one year or more, his oath shall be sufficient proof thereof, but he shall make proof by at least one competent witness, who shall be a qualified elector, that he has resided within the district for more than ten days immediately preceding said election and shall also swear that his bona fide residence, in pursuance of his lawful calling is within the district, and that he did not remove within the district for the purpose of voting.

"Every person qualified as aforesaid, and who shall make due proof if required, of his residence and payment of taxes aforesaid, shall be admitted to vote in the township, ward or district in which he shall reside.

"If any person shall prevent or attempt to prevent any officer of an election, under this act from holding such election, or use or threaten any violence to any such officer, and shall interrupt or improperly interfere with him in the execution of his duty, shall block up or attempt to block up the window or avenue to any window where the same may be holden, or shall riotously disturb the peace of such election, or shall use or practice intimidation, threats, force or violence, with the design to influence unduly or overawe any elector, or prevent him from voting, or to restrain the freedom of choice, such persons on conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, to be imprisoned for any time not less than one nor more than twelve months, and if it shall be shown to the court where the trial of such offence shall be had, that the person so offending was not a resident of the city, ward or district where the said offence was committed, and not entitled to vote therein, on conviction, he shall be sentenced to pay a fine not less than one hundred or more than one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years.

"If any person or persons shall make any bet or wager upon the result of an election within the Commonwealth, or shall offer to make any such bet or wager, either by verbal proclamation thereof, or by any written or printed advertisement, or invite any person or persons to make such bet or wager, upon conviction thereof he or they shall forfeit and pay three times the amount so bet or offered to be bet.

The qualified electors will take notice of the following act of Assembly, approved 12th day of March, 1866: AN ACT, Regulating the mode of voting at all elections, in the several counties of this Commonwealth.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the qualified voters of the several counties of this Commonwealth, at all general, township, borough and special elections, are hereby, hereafter, authorized and required to vote, by tickets, printed, or written, or partly printed and partly written, severally classified as follows: One ticket shall embrace the names of all judges of courts voted for, and to be labelled, outside, "judiciary," one ticket shall embrace the names of all state officers voted for, and be labelled, "state;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all county officers voted for, including office of senator, member, and members of assembly, if voted for, and members of Congress, if voted for, and be labelled, "county;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all township officers voted for, and be labelled, "township;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all borough officers voted for, and be labelled, "borough;" and each class shall be deposited in seperate ballot-boxes.

SECTION 2. That it shall be the duty of the Sheriffs, in the several counties of this Commonwealth, to insert in their election proclamations, hereafter issued the first section of this act.

JAMES R. KELLEY,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
DAVID FLEMING,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the thirtieth day of March, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.
A. G. CURTIN.

If you are afflicted with disease send for one of Mishler's Herb Bitters Circulars; read it carefully, profit by the hints it contains, and you will be placed on the sure road of recovery.

may11.—1y.

MISHLER'S BITTERS
WILL
CURE ALL DISEASES OF THE SKIN!

Diseases of the skin are numerous and, with but one or two exceptions, may all be traced to impurity of the blood. In many persons this impurity is born in the system; while others acquire it through improper treatment of scores of diseases. Under this head may be classed—

1st, Scrofula.—This disease is hereditary and is transmitted from generation to generation It is caused by a transgression of the laws of nature, both moral and physical; in other words, it is caused by vice. Acting as a latent poison, it reduces the vitality of the blood, and weakens the depurating organs, so that they fail to discharge or cast out the impurities that are continually generating in the system. A person physically pure acquires gonorhœa, or some other secret disease; he undergoes a course of mercury, the disease is dried up, and the patient pronounced well. Vain delusion. The complaint is not cured, its channel is only diverted. Instead of making its appearance outwardly, it acts on the internal organs, and scrofula, which is begeatthed from father to son, is the result. Many persons who are perfectly free from all immorality and vice are afflicted with scrofula. They are suffering for the sins of their fathers and laboring under the curse inscribed inscribed in the Book of Books. "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

To cure this dreadful complaint it is necessary that the blood should be thoroughly purified, all the organs of the body brought into a healthy state of action, and the system braced up and strengthened by invigorating tonics. Look at the articles used in compounding Mishler's Bitters; see the array of purifying and invigorating medicaments, and say whether there is an article in the whole list of medicines that equals it. We here emphatically assert, without fear of contradiction, that Mishler's Bitters will Cure all kinds of Scrofulous Diseases.

It purifies the blood, it strengthens the internal organs and aids them to perform their natural functions, it is a stimulant and a tonic and it will cure Scrofula.

2d, Running Sores and Ulcers.—Running sores and ulcers invariably indicate a scrofulous taint. They are caused by the efforts of nature to discharge the impurities of the blood. Many persons afflicted with running sores and ulcers succeeded in drying them up and think they are cured when the skin grows over the sore. They are, however, "but making bad worse," for the impurities that were discharged from the system through the medium of the sore now act internally and cause innumerable diseases and often death. The only true and sure cure for all running sores and ulcers is Mishler's Bitters, a continued and persevering use of which will most certainly effect a permanent cure.

3d, Salt Rheum.—Salt Rheum is a vague, indefinite, though, popular term given to almost all the non-febrile eruptions of the skin which afflict adults. It is generally an eruption of vesicles in small, distinct ulcers, accompanied with a smarting, tingling sensation, with a tendency to creep or spread over the adjoining surface. Mishler's bitters are a sure cure for this disease.

4th. Pimples and Blotches.—Pimples and Blotches on the skin are always a sure sign of impure blood. Although never dangerous, except in cases of carbuncles, they are very disagreeable.—Often we will see the most handsome features rendered hideous by great blotches and pimples, and instead of the pleasing look which should irradiate the human face we see nothing but disgusting corruption; for pimples and blotches are nothing but the corrupt accumulations of the system expelled through the medium of the skin. The use of Mishler's Bitters will force these corruptions to be discharged through the natural channels, and thus cures all kinds of pimples and blotches. Ladies who desire a fair complection, free from pimples should bear this fact in mind.

ECLECTIC MAGAZINE.—LITERATURE, SCIENCE AND ART.—New Volume begins January, 1866.

The ECLECTIC MAGAZINE is, as its name indicates, a selection from other magazines and periodicals. These selections are carefully made each month, from the entire range of foreign Periodicals. In this respect it is entirely unlike other monthlies, and has no rival. The following are some of the works from which selections are made:—

London Quarterly,	Revue de deux Mondes,
British Quarterly,	London Society,
North British Review,	Bentley's Miscellany,
Pop. Science Review,	Cornhill Magazine,
Saturday Review,	Fraser's Magazine,
Leisure Hour,	Temple Bar,
Westminster Review,	Chambers' Journal,
Dub. University Magazine,	Edinburg Review,
Art Journal,	London National Rev.

We have also arranged to secure choice selections from the FRENCH, GERMAN AND OTHER CONTINENTAL PERIODICALS, translated especially for the ECLECTIC, and it is hoped this new feature will add greatly to the variety and value of the work.

EMBELLISHMENTS.

Each number is embellished with one or more Fine Steel Engravings—portraits of eminent men or illustrative of important events.

Volumes commence in January and July of each year; subscriptions can commence with any month.

A MAGNIFICENT PREMIUM.

We will send per express, carefully boxed, a Grover & Baker Sewing Machine, to any one who will send us, on or before Feb. 1st, 1866, THIRTY SUBSCRIBERS TO THE OLD GUARD, at $3.00 each. The regular manufacturer's price is $55. No such an opportunity to circulate a superior Family Magazine, and secure a first-class Family Sewing Machine, was ever offered.

We shall commence in the January number for 1865 a series of Steel Plate Portraits, with Sketches of the most distinguished Southern Generals, beginning with Gen. Robert E. Lee. Among those given will be Generals Stonewall Jackson J. E. Johnston, Beauregard, A. P. Hill, Price, Wade Hampton, etc., etc. These Portraits and Sketches alone will be worth the price of the Magazine.

Subscriptions may commence with any number. When no time is specified, it will be understood that the subscriber wishes to begin with the January number, the first one of the volume, and back numbers will be sent accordingly.

The Magazine is always stopped when the term of subscription expires. It is not necessary to give notice of discontinuance.

AGENTS WANTED all over the United States to circulate The Old Guard. For terms, address publishers.

Single copies, 25 cts. Specimen copies sent free to all desiring to get up clubs

All letters should be addressed as follows:
VAN EVRIE, HORTON & CO,
No. 162 Nassau St., New York.

All persons whose subscriptions expire with the December number, and who intend to renew for the next year, are particularly requested to do so at once, in order that their names may not be removed from the lists. This will insure promptness in the reception of the January number. In remitting please state the fact that the subscription is a renewal.

ON SATURDAY, JANUARY 6, 1866, Messrs. TICKNOR & FIELDS began the publication of a weekly journal entitled

EVERY SATURDAY:
A JOURNAL OF CHOICE READING,
SELECTED FROM FOREIGN CURRENT LITERATURE.

Much of the best literature of the day is found in the English and Continental magazines and periodicals; and it is the design of the Publishers of this new journal to reproduce the choicest selections from these for American readers, in a form at once attractive and inexpensive. The publishers believe that such a journal, conducted upon the plan which they propose, will be not only entertaining and instructive in itself, but interesting and valuable as a reflex of foreign periodical literature of the better class.

EVERY SATURDAY is intended for town and country, for the fireside, the seaside, the railway and the steamboat. Its plan embraces Incidents of Travel and Adventure, Essays Critical and Descriptive, Serial Tales, Short Stories, Poems, Biographies, Literary Intelligence, etc., in connection with judicious selections from the admirable popular papers on science which are constantly appearing in foreign periodicals. The value of these papers arises from the fact that scientific subjects, however harsh and dry in themselves, are here treated in so graphic and picturesque a style as to charm the reader while instructing him.

It will be, in short, the aim of its publishers that EVERY SATURDAY shall commend itself by its freshness and variety to all classes of intelligent and cultivated readers.

EVERY SATURDAY will contain each week thirty-two large octavo pages, handsomely printed in double columns, with an engraved title.

TERMS.

Single Numbers, 10 cents.
Subscription price $5.00 per year, in advance.
MONTHLY PARTS will be issued, containing 128 pages each, handsomely bound in an attractive cover, price 50 cents. Subscription price, $5.00 per year, in advance.
CLUBBING ARRANGEMENT.—Subscribers to any of the other periodicals published by TICKNOR AND FIELDS will receive EVERY SATURDAY for $4.00 per year in advance.

TICKNOR & FIELDS, Publishers,
124 Tremont Street, Boston.

NOTICE TO THE PRESS.—EVERY SATURDAY will be furnished to the press, for clubbing, at $3.50 per year; and any paper copying this prospectus, with editorial notices, will be entitled to an exchange.

1866! PROSPECTUS 1866!
OF
"THE AGE,"

The only Democratic Daily Journal in Philadphia.—Great Improvements and Great Inducements.—Union, Restoration, and Constitutional Liberty.

The publishers of THE AGE respectfully call attention to the Daily and Weekly issues of their popular journal.

The Daily Age contains the latest intelligence from all parts of the world, with articles on Government, Politics, Trade, Finance, and all the current questions of the day; Local Intelligence, Market Reports, Prices Current, Stock Quotations, Marine and Commercial intelligence, Reports of Public Gatherings, Foreign and Domestic Correspondence, Legal Reports, Book Notices, Theatrical Criticisms, Reviews of Literature, Art and Music, Agricultural Matters; and discussions of whatever subjects are of general interest and importance.—Besides special telegrams, it has all the dispatches of the Associated Press from every part of the United States, and the news from all parts of Europe, brought by the steamers, is instantly telegraphed from the point the steamers first touch.

Terms of the Daily.—One copy, one year, $9.00; six months, $4 50; three months, $2.50; for any less period, at the rate of one dollar per month. Payment required invariably in advance. Postage on the Daily, thirty cents per quarter, or one dollar and twenty cents per annum, if prepaid.

The Weekly Age will be a complete compendium of the news of the week, and besides the leading editorials from the Daily, will contain a large amount of interesting matter prepared expressly for the weekly issue. It will be in all respects a first class family journal, particularly adapted to the Politician, the Farmer, the Merchant, the Mechanic, the Family Circle and the General Reader, having, in fact, every characteristic of a live newspaper. At an early day will be begun an intensely interesting serial, by one of the most popular and fascinating authors, and it is also the intention to publish, from week to week, in the course of the year, three or four of the best and latest novels.

Terms of the Weekly.—One copy, one year, $2; five copies, one year, $9; ten copies, one year, $17.-50; twenty copies, one year, $33. To clubs, where the papers are sent to one address, the following reduction will be made: Ten copies, one year, $16.50; twenty copies, one year, $30. A copy will be furnished gratis for each of ten, or more, to one address, for one year. Payment required invariably in advance. Postage on the Weekly, five cts per quarter, or twenty cents per annum, if prepaid.

☞The Weekly Age will be the great campaign paper of the Democratic Conservative Party of Pennsylvania, and will earnestly support the President in his patriotic efforts in behalf of Union, Restoration and Constitutional Liberty.

☞The above terms will be rigidly adhered to. Specimen copies of the Daily and Weekly sent gratis, on application at this office. Please write the name and address plainly, and specify distinctly whether the Daily or Weekly is ordered.

THE NEW YORK NEWS,
The only Recognized Democratic Newspaper published in New York,
DAILY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND WEEKLY.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE NEW YORK NEWS has battled against despotism for four years of blood and terror in assertion of the sanctity of the Constitution. A patriotism sufficiently broad to embrace both sections has been its only guide, and it refers now with honest pride to its record to show that it has not turned to the right or the left under all the violence of arbitrary power.

True to its principles as THE NEWS has been through the reign of terror, it challenges public confidence in its honesty and independence for the future.

The political transition of the present day opens to THE NEWS a new and wider field of usefulness. Standing now as it always has, on the inviolability of the Constitution, according to the interpretation of the strict constructionists, it presents a rallying ground for all, in both sections, who are friends of a generous conservatism. As a true and tried exponent of sectional amity it occupies a position which makes it the fitting mediator in holding up to the party of order in both sections, interests and principles that gave breadth and vitality to their alliance. As an intersectional agent, devoted to freedom of election, to trial by jury, to the sanctity of the habeas corpus, and opposed now, as for four years of terror it has been, to the centralization that dares to trample on the rights of States, North or South, THE NEWS places itself as a candidate for support before the great body of this once free people.

The circumstances of the moment make the dissemination of the principles of THE NEWS a duty of individual patriotism. Every man who concurs in its doctrines must if he entertain a true sense of freedom, do so in no spirit of indifference, but rather with the earnestness of a high trust. Justified, nay bound in his love of liberty to do so, the proprietor places the canvass he makes here of the public generally in the hands of those men who give him the approval of their consciences as his individual agents. Every reader of the THE NEWS cannot avoid the conviction of duty which is here pointed out as the ground of the request, that he urges his claims for a wider support upon all of his friends and neighbors who give their earnest sympathies to the cause of "strict construction," intersectional conciliation, and all the rights of the citizen under the system set up by our fathers of liberty regulated by law. The proprietor of THE NEWS calls, therefore, upon true and good conservatives throughout the country to discharge, to their convictions of political right at this great crisis in the country's fortunes, the duty of giving to the influence of his paper, daily, semi-weekly, or weekly, the wider power for good which it seeks here through the service of its individual supporters.

EXTRACT BUCHU.

HELMBOLD'S BUCHU
HELMBOLD'S BUCHU.
HELMBOLD'S BUCHU.

The only known remedy for

DIABETES,
IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, CATARRH OF THE BLADDER, STRANGURY OR PAINFUL URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms.

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back and through the hips? A teaspoonful a day of Helmbold's Buchu will relieve you.

PHYSICIANS AND OTHERS

PLEASE NOTICE.

I make no secret of ingredients. Helmbold's Extract Buchu is composed of Buchu, Cubebs, and Juniper Berries, selected with great care, prepared in vacuo and according to rules of

PHARMACY AND CHEMISTRY,

These ingredients are known as the most valuable Diuretics afforded.

A DIURETIC

Is that which acts upon the kidneys.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
ACTS GENTLY,

Is pleasant in taste and odor, free from all injurious properties, and immediate in its action.

FOR THE SATISFACTION OF ALL,

See Medical Properties contained in Dispensatory of the U. S., of which the following is a correct copy:

"BUCHU.—Its odor is strong, diffusive, and somewhat aromatic, its taste bitterish, and analogous to that of mint. It is given chiefly in complaints of the Urinary Organs, such as Gravel, chronic Catarrh of the Bladder, Morbid irritation of the Bladder and Urethra, Diseases of the Prostrate, and Retention or the Incontinence of Urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in its evacuation. It has also been recommended in Dyspepsia, Chronic Rheumatism, Cutaneous Affections, and Dropsy."

FROM THE LARGEST
MANUFACTURING CHEMIST
IN THE WORLD.

I am acquainted with H. T. Helmbold; he occupied the drug store opposite my residence, and was successful in conducting the business where others had not been equally so before him. I have been favorably impressed with his character and enterprise.

WM. WEIGHTMAN,
(Firm of Powers & Weightman,)
Manufacturing Chemists,
Ninth and Brown Streets, Philadelphia.

[From the Phila'a Evening Bulletin, Mar...10.]

We are gratified to hear of the continued success, in New York, of our townsman, Mr. H. T. Helmbold, Druggist. His store, next to the Metropolitan Hotel, is 28 feet front, 230 feet deep, and five stories in height. It is certainly a grand establishment, and speaks favorably of the merit of his articles. He retains his Office and Laboratory in this city, which are also model establishments of their class.

The proprietor has been induced to make this statement from the fact that his remedies, although advertised, are

GENUINE PREPARATIONS,

And, knowing that the intelligent refrain from using any thing pertaining to Quackery, or the Patent Medicine order—most of which are prepared by self-styled Doctors, who are too ignorant to read a physician's simplest prescription, much less competent to prepare pharmaceutical preparations.

A WORD OF CAUTION.

Health is most important; and the afflicted should not use an advertised remedy, unless its contents or ingredients are known to others besides the manufacturer, or until they are satisfied of the qualifications of the party so offering.

SHRINERS BALSAMIC COUGH SYRUP.
For Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, Asthma, Bronchitis, Spitting Blood, Pain and Weakness of the Breast, Difficulty of Breathing, &c.

This is no new remedy. It has been used for a number of years in Maryland and parts of Pennsylvania, and has, wherever known, acquired a unprecedented reputation for curing the various diseases for which it is recommended.

So apparent is its usefulness, and so remarkable has been its cures, that it is fast superceding every other remedy for those diseases. The afflicted can rely upon its doing as much for them, and in many cases more than any other remedy now before the public.

It is recommended and prescribed in the practice of a large number of the most intelligent and able physicians of Maryland. It is used and considered an indispensable household remedy by a large portion of the first families of the State.

It is used by all classes of society, and the universal opinion is that it is good. This Syrup is Purely Vegetable Compound. It is pleasant to take, and never does injury. But owing to its purifying qualities, must do good under any circumstances. Its effects are truly wonderful, soothing, calming, and allaying the most violent coughs
